

Customer Onboarding Policy

Version v1 · Effective 1 March 2025 · Status: published
Owner: Money Laundering Reporting Officer · Category: Financial crime
Applies to: Sales

Fictional policy written for a software demonstration. Kestrel Mutual is an invented organization. This is not real policy, law or regulatory guidance.

1 Purpose

This policy sets the checks Kestrel Mutual completes before it accepts a new customer.

2 Identity verification

2.1 Verification before activation

A customer's identity must be verified before their policy is activated.

2.2 Acceptable evidence

Identity is verified by an electronic check against two independent sources, or by a certified copy of a passport or driving licence.

2.3 Incomplete verification

If verification is still incomplete 30 days after the application, the application is closed and any payment is refunded.

3 Enhanced due diligence

3.1 Triggers

Enhanced due diligence is required when the annual premium exceeds £50,000, when the customer is a politically exposed person, or when the premium is paid by a third party.

3.2 Approval

A customer who requires enhanced due diligence may be onboarded only with approval from the Money Laundering Reporting Officer.

4 Exceptions

4.1 Existing customers exception

Existing customers whose identity was verified within the last three years do not need to repeat identity verification under clause 2.1 when they buy another product.